

STATE NEWS.

The city of Auburn raises this year $17,538.57 for municipal appropriations.

Mrs. James Whitaker of Lamoine committed suicide by drowning herself.

The store of Leonard J. Thomas of Eden, was broken into last week and about $800 taken. The robber has been arrested.

The Auburn city government refuse to provide a room for the judges of their Police Court.

Work on the new building for generating power at the State House will commence the first of May.

Wentworth Lord, Jr., of Acton, was mortally wounded Thursday by the falling of a tree, and died last night after being laid down, and died the next morning. He leaves a family.

Mr. John N. Farrar of Baileyville had a cow, one year old cow, worth two hundred dollars, goad to death by a cow, on Tuesday week.

The Presque Isle Sunrises, has been greatly enlarged and improved, and is now a handsome twenty-eight column paper.

The Kennebec Journal says that Hon. George D. Allen contemplates removing his residence from Waterville, and taking up his abode in Augusta.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

Judge James G. Master, died at Houlton, N. Y., on Thursday.

The Vigilantes are still notifying obnoxious parties to leave Virginia, Nevada, instantly, and their orders are invariably obeyed.

Dr. Van Aerum has resigned the Commissionership of penitens to take effect May 31st.

James T. Fields will retire from the editorship of the Atlantic Monthly July 1st, and be succeeded by Mr. Wm. D. S. Howells the present assistant editor.

As among the petitioners for suffrage in Washington, D. C. are: George Green, Wm. E. D. E. X. Southworth, Mary A. Denison, and several women physicians.

Dr. E. Ward, President of the Philadelphia Board of Health, died on Friday morning of pneumonia. He was born near Boston, and graduated at Harvard.

The Faldgen (N. Y. Sentinel) says that "of all the despicable characters inside or outside of the penitentiary, the most despicable is the repentant reeler."

Andrew Johnson denies the assertion of —Mr. Knowles of Greene, a lady about 70 years of age, fell Friday, and dislocated her arm.

—Mr. James Rice, of Winthrop, was found dead in his bed on the morning of April 24. It is thought he died of heart disease.

The foundations for the new brick chapel of the Institute Hospital at Anguilla, are to be laid at once. This will connect with the first building, and it is to be some 70 feet in length by 42 in breadth.

The old roof Hotel at Princeton, again, was on Friday, March 31st, and was burned down. The Hotel was built by the late Col. Fred Remond, and a mile of Mr. Root, was considerably damaged by fire about the same time.

—The Charlestown, Mass. City Guards, under Major, an organization of the militia, will leave for the annual tour of inspection next June, and the Portland Eight have volunteered an escort on that occasion.

The Argus says that Post Boyworth N. Portland, paid out from the relief fund for the families of deceased and disabled soldiers, $1,000.

A day or two since Wm. Griffin of Cape

Received back into the Republican fold. Personal friends noticed how the suggestion was received.

Col. Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte of the French army received many visitors at 'New York Thursday, and expressed a confidence that the disunionists in France would not be long in coming over to the permanent government established.

Rev. Mr. Cheury of Christ Church, Shanghai, who has been sustained by his congregation, deans having conferred nineteen persons in the absence of the Bishop, and stated that he would be glad to communicate according to Prayer Book authority.

The disappearance of Pension Agent Lawrence of New York causes great anxiety. His accounts have been examined, and are reported correct. His wife, however, has stated however, as he wrote to her, wife, his intention to be absent beyond the reach of postal communication.

The Senate confirmed the following appointments on Saturday: Bush, E. (towel of Oregon); H. (towel of Oregon); Joseph M. Linsmeier, Surveyor of Indian Affairs; and Isaac J. Gooden.

The Voice says that Eli Kollong, of Patten, lost a valuable horse at the Brule Branch on the 26th ult., making four horses that have been lost within three years, valued by him at $12,000.

The Republican says that Capt. Benjamin Benson of Macpherson, has been sent with a regiment, and will be sent to the Indian Reservation.

A dispatch announces the death in New York City of Capt. Martin, of the 6th N. Y. Cavalry, who was killed at the battle of Gettysburg and leaves a widow and two children in charge Elizabeth. He was about 40 years of age.

The Journal says that Sunday forenoon a dry-house connected with J. P. Wyman, at Macpherson, on Bond's branch, Angus, took fire and was partially burned. Loss between $500 and $1,000.

The Angus Journal says that a brutal fellow named Lynch, on Saturday committed an outrage on an outcast of the year named Marshall. Lynch has been arrested.

The Camden Herald says that Mr. Jacob's hands met with a very serious and nearly fatal injury, while working on the road, on Tuesday morning by a premature explosion. One of his hands was nearly severed from the wrist and the greater portion of the forehead laid bare to the skull.

The Dover Observer says: "We understand that a conspired effort, is being made by the dominant temperature and leading interests, to overthrow the run power and liquidate in every town in Massachusetts county."

[illegible][illegible]

Advertisement

S. M. D.
the first Railroad between Kentucky and Tennessee, and through Kentucky.
It will connect the two States by a shorter route than the present one, and will save time and money.
The route is as follows:
From Kentucky to Tennessee, via the Kentucky River, and then down the Tennessee River to the Gulf of Mexico.

Railroad

Advertisement

BY JO

H A

Daily Advertiser

PUBLISHED
At No. 1, East E-

TERMS—$8.00 PER ANNUM IN ADVANCE.

INVARIA

The Bangor

[illegible]

ne Three of Nial PSYCHIC QUESTIONS will be answered.
Sabbath,
Sept. 10, 1893,
7:30 P.M.
Admission
free. Free will contribution at the close of the service.
St. Paul Street Church, Chicago, Ill.
Co.
POIN teach.
Met

Terms for the material the lowest of any
 All and Wholesalers, by adjusted prices on all Silks, Thread, and Findings, Goods.
READ & CO.
 AGENTS
THE SEWING

THE BEST MACHINE

Having sold them, for pleasure in driving, to the Police and County as the best. Some that I have sold for more than a year and I take pleasure in just what they want to do. Call and see the car.

No. 25 M
B. F. S. P. A.
Bangor, March 18 1901

Carriage

Top Boogie, Brown and Cartrails, Pony Phaeton, Large variety of Seated and bench seat for sale.

mech20

SPRING
Cloth

A nice and HILL'S & West End
March
Banger and Pisco
The semi-annual conference the branch on 1913 (1913)
Banger and Pisco
the Second National Bank of the Company in Banger
March 1913, 1913
Boys' and CLOTH
IN GREAT Suits for Boys for Call and see before
Our usual assort
JONES B.
1 and 2 West End
Banger, Me. 10, 1870.
CARL SC

CABLE

AT A BASTION

20078 AN

Has proved superior to
For all the lighter grade, applicable, and the most or the finest pump-sole more durable, and pro fastened with

CAMBER

and popular Gr and made any and

THREE

IN ALL POSITIONS

APRIL

R

DUR